

Chicago Skyliners Chapter (IPBA)

SPRING ZOOM GATHERING

MARCH 20, 2021

1.0 Welcome - Happy 1st Day of Spring 2021 (1:10 pm)

Participating via Zoom Video

- Row 1: Rusty and Jeffrey Sanfilippo, Teri Wirth, Mike & Sherry Millers, Susie Proctor
- Row 2: Joyce Geeser, Terri Chappell-Boyd, Pam McQuen, Howard Miller
- Row 3: Deborah Washington, Dawn Fleming, Eleanor Pippens, Deborah Weiss DeBrown
- Row #4: Martha Foley

2.0 “Virtual” Convention 2021 Update

Teri Wirth gave the group a detailed and ‘excitement” making overview of the upcoming IPBA 2020 Virtual convention. She highlighted--

- ◆ Vanity Table Talks include a wide range to great topics --
 - Chanel
 - Snow Globes,
 - Dating an Antique Scent Bottles,
 - Collecting Vintage Magazine Ads,
 - Houbigant in the Gilded Age,
 - Purses,
 - Atomizers,
 - Anna Leventeri who holds the Guinness Record for the most perfume bottles.

The Vanity Table talks will be three sessions so members can attend more of these talks.

- ◆ Virtual Tours - no convention would be complete with tours. The 2021 “Virtual Convention” features three fantastic Virtual tours.
 - ▶ An exclusive virtual tour of the Musée Lalique. This virtual tour was developed exclusively for the IPBA’s 2021 convention.
 - ▶ A rare tour of the extensive collection of IPBA Archivist Helen Farnsworth.
 - ▶ A not to miss tour of the Perfume Passage
- ◆ Presentations - Teri highlighted the great presentations scheduled for our 2021 Virtual Convention.
 - ▶ English Cameo lass Perfume Bottles
 - ▶ Artistic Miniatures - Compacts from 1925 - 1960
 - ▶ Perfume Houses, History Preserved Through Ephemera
 - ▶ A Century of Perfume From the Harrach (Bohemian) Glassworks

3.0 Perfume Passage Update / Fall Skyliners Gathering

Deborah stated that the next scheduled chapter gathering was scheduled for November 13, 2021. It was moved from IPBA day 2021 to accommodate any IPBA events at the Perfume Passage. Deborah also stated, that based on the status of Covid, the November gathering could be an in person.

Jeffrey and Rusty gave on an update on the Perfume Passage stating that they hoped the Perfume Passage would be reopened for visits by late summer or early Fall. They would being the IPBA Day symposiums.

After checking the fall schedule, Jeffrey and Rusty to host the next Chapter gathering as part of the October 16 It was agreed that the next gathering would take place on IPBA Day October 16, 2021 Perfume Passage events.

4.0 The meeting moved to the Chapter's favorite activity - Show and Tell. Below are highlights of the wonderful pieces shown by members.

* Pam McQuen

Pamela McKuen shared her "spring green" collection of Prince Matchebelli in various sizes.

* Terri Chappell-Boyd

Terri Chappell-Boyd reminded us that the beautiful "blue bonnet" flower was the State flower of Texas. She share a piece from her collection - a gorgeous presentation of Texanita Blue Bonnet Eau de Cologne and mini.

* Deborah Weiss DeBrown

Deborah Weiss DeBrown shared a gorgeous piece from her purse collection - a French Celluloid with shamrocks and pigs.

* Susie Proctor - Shared three of her "Spring Theme" treasures with the group.

Susie's first item was a set by Val St. Lambert

Susie's second share were these extremely heavy, thick perfumes purchased from England.

Susie's third share was this beautiful green set, marked "Made in France."

* Mike and Sherry Miller shared spring / St. Patrick's day Theme items from their collection.

In the Chicago, sports are king.
Mile and Sherry
shared this Elgin ladies' powder compact in the shape of a basketball.
Go Bulls?

How appropriate for spring / St. Patrick's Day.
Mike and Sherry shared this stunning Whiting & Davis circa 1929 flat mesh bag with four-leaf clover design.

* Martha Foley

Martha shared her "Suivez- moi"
(Follow Me) perfume) bottle - 4" tall.
She filled it with colored liquid to show off the detail of the skirt.

* Rusty Sanfilippo

Rusty shared a pic of a Chanel Snow
Globe. He's doing a "Table Talk" on Chanel Globes at our 2021 Virtual Convention.

* Deborah L. Washington

Deborah shared her "spring green" malachite perfume bottle that was a gift from a Czech co-worker/friend.

* Joyce Geeser

Joyce shared this gorgeous treasure. The stone is called Bowenite. It's has a textured gold mounting that is set with Ruby and Emerald gemstones, and has Moscow, Russia hallmarks.

* Jeffrey Sanfilippo

Jeffrey shared this beauty. A Carven Parfums Hand-Painted Ceramic Display Mannequin. Arms out to the sides designed to hold two small perfume bottles. Marked Cree pour Les Parfums Carven 1952 V. Guino artist. Height: 13 3/8"

