

IPBA Benefactor Program

From Collectors to Conservators — Be an IPBA Benefactor

The International Perfume Bottle Association (IPBA) is proud to introduce the IPBA Benefactor Program, created to make giving more rewarding while inviting members to play an active role in the preservation and celebration of our shared passion.

As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, the IPBA depends on the generosity of its members, collectors, and corporate sponsors to continue its mission of education, preservation, and appreciation of perfume bottles, vanity items, and the stories they tell. All donations are tax deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law. At this time, the IPBA is facing real financial challenges due to declining membership and rising operational costs. Your contributions are essential to helping us maintain the core services our members value and expect.

This is your organization — one built and nurtured by collectors who care deeply about protecting the artistry, craftsmanship, and cultural significance of perfume bottles and vanity items. As we navigate increasing financial pressures, your support as a Benefactor becomes even more important. It helps ensure that the IPBA can continue operating without major reductions or the potential loss of beloved programs, including conventions, publications, and educational offerings.

The IPBA Benefactor Program is excited to offer giving levels ranging from Gold, Platinum, Silver, and Bronze to our more accessible Crystal, Pearl, and Quartz tiers. Each level provides a meaningful way to participate, ensuring that every member can play a part in strengthening the IPBA. With your help, we can continue serving our membership while working to prevent difficult cuts or program changes that may otherwise become necessary.

For Individual Benefactors:

Enjoy exclusive privileges such as convention tickets with early entry, annual membership, and recognition in IPBA publications including the Perfume Bottle Quarterly, eNews, and on our website. Each tier offers its own rewards while helping to sustain the IPBA's mission of education, preservation, and celebration.

For Corporate Sponsors:

In addition to the benefits above, corporate sponsors receive dedicated advertising space in the Perfume Bottle Quarterly, logo recognition across IPBA platforms, and opportunities to provide branded materials or products for convention gift bags—offering outstanding visibility among passionate collectors and industry leaders.

No matter what your level of support, your generosity strengthens the IPBA and ensures our legacy endures for generations to come.

We invite you to join us in shaping the future of our community and preserving the beauty of the past. Together, we can continue to educate, inspire, and share the passion that connects us all.

Become a Benefactor — and be part of our legacy.
